"BE" a WILDCAT!

Arundel High School Counselors share what being a WILDCAT means to them:

Mr. Luke Wilhelm (Department Chair; JOI-McD, ESOL)- "Being a Wildcat means to be the best version of yourself that you can be."

Mr. Anthony Diggs (McE-R)- "Being a Wildcat means to be able to challenge my students, stay positive and never doubt their abilities."

Mrs. Julie Cochran (A-DAN)- "Being a Wildcat means to be a part of a family. We believe in one another and aim to instill hope in our students."

Mrs. Rhonda Clifton Smith (S-Z)- "Being a Wildcat means to be versatile and able to work with all students in all situations."

Mrs. Karol Muhammad (DEO-JOH)- "Being a Wildcat means to be unique. We are comfortable being ourselves and value all the qualities that make us exceptional."

Mr. John Henderson (AVID) - "Being a Wildcat means to be courageous. We are willing to take risks and are not afraid of challenges."
