Arundel High School Chapter
Gambrills, Maryland

STUDENT CANDIDACY INFORMATION

“Selection to NHS is a privilege, not a right. Eligible students do not apply for membership in the National Honor Society; instead, they provide information to be used by the local selection committee to support their candidacy for membership” (National Honor Society Handbook).

DIRECTIONS: Please complete all sections - either typed or printed neatly in ink. Do NOT be modest, but do not exaggerate! Every bit of information can be used by the faculty council to assist with the selection process. Read and complete the entire form. The faculty council will not review applications that are illegible or incomplete. You are welcome to edit this electronically if it helps you with clarity. The faculty council may choose to follow up on any information in the application; any false information will result in immediate disqualification of your candidacy.
